About This Game

Lifeblood is based in a fantasy world where players must team up to compete in a forested battle arena. As a fatal shroud engulfs the land in dark energy, contestants must fight to the death in order to stop its spread. In a land ruled by the Gods, it is decided that only one team may remain. Ensure your survival by harvesting resources from natural nodes and crafting armor.

Armor can be reinforced with additional resources to a maximum of three tiers. Take control of the relentless Berserker, the mystical spellslinger, and other many unique classes! Together they form a completely unbiased and fresh take on class-based PvP. Classes may be changed as the game progresses by equipping different weapons, each granting the classes' abilities to the wielder. Become a force to be reckoned with as the shroud pushes survivors to the final destination, a central tower untouched by the shroud's dark energy. Make your final stand here and be granted the favor of the Gods!

Lifeblood is not limited to Battle Royale as we will release other game modes with newfangled concepts for PvP on the horizon.

What makes Lifeblood different from other class-based games is how there is no 'role' a player must fill, such as a tank or healer. Lifeblood is not centered around solo gameplay. We strive to create an environment where players must communicate and work together to be effective.

Lifblood is developed by Homage Studios, an independent game developing company started in 2017.

Coming Soon:

New Classes: additional classes will be added, including Assassins, Rangers, and Crusaders

Shrines: points of contention on the map where players can exchange Etherium for special gear and items.

Parties: groups of five will be able to compete in the battle arena.

Ranked Play: players will be matched according to a ranking system and play under competitive rule.

Solo Queues: only one survivor may remain in this game mode.

Im a big fan of watch paint dry games and I like this one but I have some problems with the story.. Nice and simple.... More like Fist of Do the same thing on every level until you finally realize you're repeating the same action over and over again and you decide to move on. :-) Fun for about 20 minutes.. It is to simple. Feels and looks like a smartphone game at best. Shame :(

Some gameplay: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=o2Z0crUhDyU>. Useless game. No support. Taranis Q-X7, Devo 7e, & Turnigy 9XR Pro Windows 7, & Windows 10 All tried and all failed

Game looks cool, but doesn't matter if you can't fly.

Better off playing FPVfreerider, Liftoff, DRL, or Hotprops. At least these work with no issues. Good game for achievements but its buggy i closed it once and not getting achievements anymore :/. It's worth the \$2.50 I spent.. Should hate this game. Poor graphics, a bit repetitive, need to google to understand colour coding system, etc. But I don't hate this game. I play it constantly. You probably will too.. I don't know how i got it for free, but, I really enjoyed the relaxing atmosphere and game-play. I recommend this one if it is on sale.

My issue with this game is not so much the cost which is a problem but not as bad as some of the posts ive seen here but the decks of the computer... they are literally (no exaggeration) the best possible cards they have. what i mean by this is they will have id say 90% if not 100% leg cards in there deck from the beginning and as you can see from my time playing i really gave it a go but i cant say it was all fun but i do like the concept of this game but its just not worth the difficulty unless you won the lottery or have alot of extra money to blow on getting the cards to make a competitive deck id say pass on this one.. not worth the $2.50 unless you are an old old old old school fan. Another nicely made puzzle game.

Good music

There are stats.

No Unity launcher whatsoever.

Can be a lil bit more colorful.

Solid 8/10. A unique FPS, entertaining variety of weapons, vehicles, and gadgets, campaign is long and entertaining, story is a bit weak perhapes, maps are VAST and supports 64 player multiplayer!. The game is alright at the moment. Surprisingly realistic, but clunky in many ways. I really really want it to succeed, so I will be sure to play it often and contribute to discussions!. Mediocre Mega Man clone. I didnt really want to put thumbs ups or down yet, but it came little closer to thumbs down...

+ Playability is fine

+\\- Controls are tolerable, when you jump, you kinda "glide" in air

- Music is mediocre, nothing too catchy

- Level design is somewhat boring, there isnt too much of details around

- Enemies feel simple and nothing too special, pulled out of an\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665- Hit recoil doesnt affect when touching spikes, that\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665me off.

If you are a Mega Man fan and enjoy these kinda games, it might be worth your while. Its just seems to lack creativity and\\or effort.
